

LEGAL ASSISTANCE:

Victim Advocates are employed in each District Attorney's Office and are available to assist murder victim family members throughout the legal process. These victim's advocates are available free of charge. These advocates provide notification of legal proceedings, explain the process to the family members and help them navigate the system during murder investigations and trials. As cases move forward in the district attorneys' offices, a victim's advocate is assigned to the family.

1st Judicial District – Santa Fe, Rio Arriba and Los Alamos Counties: 505-827-5000 X 190

2nd Judicial District – Bernalillo County: 505-841-7102

3rd Judicial District – Dona Ana County: 575-524-6370

4th Judicial District – San Miguel, Mora and Guadalupe Counties: 505-425-6746

5th Judicial District – Eddy, Chaves and Lea Counties: 575-885-8822

6th Judicial District – Grant, Luna and Hidalgo Counties: 575-388-1941

7th Judicial District – Catron, Socorro, Sierra and Torrance Counties: 575-835-0052

8th Judicial District – Taos, Colfax and Union Counties: 575-758-8683

9th Judicial District – Curry and Roosevelt Counties: 575-769-2246

10th Judicial District – Quay, Harding and DeBaca Counties: 575-461-2075

11th Judicial District, Division I – San Juan County: 505-599-9810

11th Judicial District, Division II – McKinley County: 505-722-2281

12th Judicial District – Otero and Lincoln Counties: 575-437-3640

13th Judicial District – Cibola, Sandoval and Valencia Counties: 505-285-4627

To order additional copies of this brochure, please call the
New Mexico Murder Victim Family Advocacy Project at 505-205-3750.

New Mexico
MURDER VICTIM
FAMILY ADVOCACY PROJECT

SERVICES for MURDER VICTIM FAMILIES

When a family loses a member to murder, a variety of services are available to assist with financial, legal and mental issues. The New Mexico Murder Victim Family Advocacy Project developed the following list of potential resources in New Mexico.